SUPPER PARTY HONORING MARY FRANCES SCAFIDE AND EMILY CLAIRE MURTAGH

One of the most beautiful and outstanding supper parties of the season, was that given by Mrs. Sam Piazza in honor of Mary Frances Scafide and Emily Claire Murtagh, both members of the graduation class of St. Joseph Academy.

The color scheme was carried out in red and white, which are the Senior colors and the home was decorated with a profusion of flowers in those shades.

The table was beautifully appointed with a lace cloth and in the center was a large white cake surrounded with red roses and small white flowers. On the cake, written in red was "Class '44." Tiny streamers of red wound their way around the table.

At each place was a charming little favor, in the form of miniature dolls, dressed as graduates, with white caps and gowns.

The honorees and their classmates enjoyed a delicious supper and a wonderful evening.

Those present were: Misses Mary Frances Scafide, Emily Claire Murtagh, Pat Davidson, Carol Stevenson, Betty Simpson Joyce Arnold, Jacqueline Autin, Mildred Harrell, Josephine Castro, Katherine Ellen Kehoe.

Those assisting Mrs. Piazza were Misses Rosemary Piazza, Dorothy Cormier and Mary Lou Pravata and also students of S. J. A.

BAY-WAVELAND GARDEN CLUB MET THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Bay-Waveland Garden Club met on Thursday afternoon, May 9 at the home of Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab. In connection with the business session the annual flower show was held with entries limited to members only.

Gex; Blue Ribbon for a center piece of Iris, Mrs. Frank Kiefer; Red Ribbon for center pieces of Magnolias and moss; Arrangement of one variety; Mrs. Harry S. Pond, blue ribbon; Mrs. Roy Baxter, Sr. Red ribbon; both were arrangements of Hydrangeas; Arrangement of mixed variety; Mrs. H. A. Oxenham, blue ribbon; Mrs. Louis Tate, red ribbon; Mrs. F. O. McCoy, white ribbon; Cactus; Mrs. F. O. McCoy, blue ribbon; Wild Flowers; Mrs. Frank Kiefer, blue ribbon; Mrs. Clem B. Penrose, Sr., red ribbon; Single Specimen Hydrangea; Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, blue ribbon; Miniature; Mrs. L. T. Boyd, blue ribbon for a miniature arrangement of Pansies; Canned Fruits; Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, blue ribbon; Jellies; Mrs. L. T. Boyd, blue ribbon; Horticulture; Miss Louise A. Crawford, blue ribbon for an exhibit of Mirlitons which are not usually ripe at this season.

Mrs. Kelly Reynolds gave a short talk on Flower Arrangement including the Chinese idea and gave several demonstrations.

Refreshments were served and a social time was enjoyed.

SENIOR CLASS OF BAY HIGH ENTERTAINED AT LOGTOWN

The Senior class of Bay High with the sponsor Mrs. Watson, was entertained Wednesday night by Miss Alma Parker, honoring her niece Miss Shirley Fountain. The out door party was given at Logtown, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Foun-

A long table covered with green and white was placed in the yard. In the center of the table was a flat dish of pansies of the school colors. The pansies were arranged to form an "S." The yard was lighted by electric lights strung along on extension cords. Card tables were arranged outside so the guests could sit four at each table.

To start the fun, "Bingo" was played and many of the guests won attractive prizes. Later, two bars of soap were awarded to Jack Bourgeois and John Mirambel for having the largest feet, shoe size 10 1/2. Ira Claire Smith won for having the smallest foot, size 4.

Slips of paper were then passed around on which words of different songs were written. A scramble took place to see which group could match their words and get ready to sing first. The group having "Roll Out the Barrel" was ready first but the group singing, "Put Your Arms Around Me Honey," won first place for the best singing.

The refreshments were served in picnic boxes, decorated in green and white crepe paper, the class colors. Each box contained a lunch for four. In each box was chicken salad, pimento sandwiches, cakes decorated with green and white icing, rice crackers, and coca cola.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM GALA EVENT

The Junior-Senior Prom of St. Stanislaus College was held on Saturday evening, May thirteenth at eight-thirty o'clock.

The College Prom is always a keenly anticipated event among the younger set and is the outstanding event of the year's social activity at the school.

Each spring the Juniors honor the upper classmen with a formal dance and maintain the strictest secrecy as they transform the college auditorium into a place of beauty.

On entering the auditorium one had the feeling of being suddenly transplanted to a beautiful night spot in California, or "Club Azure," as the Juniors chose to name it.

The whole setting was copied from the Cosmopolitan Dome in California.

The entire edge of the dance floor was lined with most realistically tall and stately palms and surrounding this was a balcony with tables and chairs where the couples and guests repaired while not dancing.

They were served a constant round of refreshments by the Sophomores.

The orchestra was seated under a beautiful palm thatched dome at the head of the dance floor and leading from the dome and extending to sides and ceiling was the effect of moon rays. This moonlight effect was added to by the blue lighting hidden in the center of the ceiling over the dancers' heads.

The artistic ability of the juniors on these occasions has always proved amazing, for no outside help is ever employed.

The prom was a most enjoyable and festive affair and will long be cherished as fond memory.

Those attending were: Misses Carolyn Hoyt, Jeanne Oberling, Betty Byrne, Rosemary Piazza, Mary Frances Scafide, Emily Claire Murtagh, Patricia Byrne, Muriel Tate, Betty Lee Mitchell, Josefina Castro, Rosemary Dillon, Frances Bologna, Estelle Finhold, Crisia Mas Pisciotta, Connie Moise, Jeanne Gardeble, Joyce Raphael, Libby Dolese, Julie Elliott, Shirley Demetz, Jane Waggespack, Catherine Kehoe, Jackie Robinson, Ira Claire Smith, Annabelle Arnold, Mariolu Bourgeois, Dorothy Cornier, Jim Evans, Roland Lafontaine, Leroy Adam, Clois Pucheu and Argyle Spence.

There was a wealth of floral offerings and each high school class sent a design and the Boys' basketball team and the Girls' team each sent large floral offerings.

"How beautiful is youth! how bright it gleams, with its illusions, aspirations and dreams!" and when it is necessary to chronicle the death of the young it brings with it a note of acute sadness and leaves a feeling of futility because of the difficulty in paying tribute to the one who has answered the call.

In the death of this estimable young boy his parents have lost a splendid son, his grandmother a devoted grandson, the school a fine student and faculty and student body a friend. But though he is not there his lesson of loyalty to duty, unselfishness and love for his friends will be found in the lives of those with whom he was associated.

The Echo is extending to Hervey's family deep and sincere sympathy at this time of sorrow.

Hervey Cameron, 18-Years Old Dies at Picayune Hospital

Hervey Cameron, 18 year old son of James Cameron and Mrs. Althea Carver Cameron of Logtown, died early Tuesday morning at the Picayune Hospital following a major operation. He was a member of the senior class of Bay High and his death came as a great shock to the faculty and student body for he was an outstanding student and was loved by his teachers and class mates.

He had taken his grade work in the Logtown School and came to Bay St. Louis for his high school work. Here he was manager of the basketball and football teams for the past two years and was to have participated in the May Festival but had to be taken to the hospital before it was held. He was regarded as one of the most dependable students in the school and was a friend to all doing always what had to be done and his place cannot be filled.

His funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with services at the Logtown Baptist Church by Rev. W. B. Jones and interment was in the Logtown cemetery. His pall bearers were Howard Kidd, athletic coach at Bay High and the five members of the basket ball team, Jim Evans, Roland Lafontaine, Leroy Adam, Clois Pucheu and Argyle Spence.

Vesper Services For Bay
High Seniors Held Sunday

Vesper Services for the Bay High Seniors were held on Sunday afternoon at six o'clock in the school auditorium.

The program was played by Mrs. Natalie B. Watson and two vocal numbers were given by the Boys Chorus.

Rev. E. E. Samples brought the Vesper Message to the class, the theme of which was that these young people were meeting a world where everything has lost its meaning and that they must take with them a faith adequate to sustain them thru this world and that it must be a Christian faith such as Paul's.

Mrs. J. W. Woolwine Dies
At Yazoo City

News reached here last week that Mrs. J. W. Woolwine of Yazoo City had died at the Baptist Hospital at Jackson, following a major operation last week. Mrs. Woolwine had served two terms as State president of the Mississippi Branch of the International Order of Kings Daughters and Sons and attended the state convention when it met in Bay St. Louis.

She was a graduate of the University of Tennessee and had a volume of her verses published.

Mrs. Woolwine was a comparatively young woman and her passing leaves a vacancy in the roll of prominent women. She had several close friends in Bay St. Louis who personally grieve at her passing.

BAY
CAFEORTTE THEATRE SUN.
MONDAY PRESENTS
"THOUSANDS CHEER"

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, the company which gave film audiences great all-star pictures does it once more in the lavish Technicolor musical "Thousands Cheer." It contains virtually every star on the M-G-M lot, the studio of big stars.

Kathryn Grayson, Gene Kelly, Mary Astor and John Boles head the cast in the delightful tale of the Army officer's daughter who undertakes a morale job at her father's camp and falls in love with an circus performer and proceeds to make him the best soldier in camp. In the course of the film a gigantic USO show is presented to the boys in camp. Among those who appear in the many acts are Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Red Skelton, Eleanor Powell, Ann Sothern, Lucille Ball, Virginia O'Brien, Frank Morgan, Lena Horne, Little Margaret O'Brien, Marilyn Maxwell and Marsha Hunt and many others.

Joe Turbi in his first appearance on the screen, displays an outstanding talent as an actor and in addition to his fine musical selections accompanies Judy Garland in a genuine five number that should tear the house down. Kathryn Grayson makes a charming and appealing young concert singer and sings several numbers. Gene Kelly proves himself to be one of the greatest dancers on the screen with his mop and broom routine.

USE
NEED

Electric energy is one of the powerful forces which furnish the tools for our men across the seas—It helps preserve the health and energies of those who fight the battles of production—It guards the eyesight and helps maintain a normal environment for little ones.—In wartime more than ever you should use the electricity you need.

BUT

USE

While there's no shortage of electricity, the war effort in these crucial times demands that manpower, fuel, transportation, and critical materials be conserved to the maximum. When you save electricity, you help conserve these vital needs, and so we urge you not to waste electricity. Need what you use.
